

Singing Workshop with Alison Burns

Saturday 25th April
St. Margaret's Hall, Forfar
10am - 4.30pm
(Registration from 9.30am)

Ali Burns is one of the UK's leading Natural Voice Choir Leaders and a songwriter and arranger who loves to write for community choirs – songs with lush, beautiful harmonies and simple text that are easy enough to learn by ear but satisfying and special to sing. Many of her songs have found their way into the repertoire - and hearts - of singers across the UK, and increasingly the USA, New Zealand and Australia. Her work is published by Faber, Sing Up! and Oxford University Press.

£20 (£15 concessions and AF members)

Directions to St Margaret's Church, Forfar.

St. Margaret's Church,
West High St,
Forfar,
Angus,
DD8 1BJ

From the A90 Dundee
To Aberdeen dualcarriageway, take the
A929 junction to Forfar.
There is a McDonalds
'restaurant' at this junction.

Follow Glamis Road
straight in to the town
until you reach the traffic lights at the end of West High Street.

St. Margaret's Church is straight ahead over these lights, on the left, between the bank and the post office. However, to park your car, turn left at the traffic lights and the first right, signposted for the Myre Car Park. This is a free car park and you can leave your car all day. From the car park, a small lane / steps leads up the side of the Guide Hall to St. Margaret's Church. At the top of the steps, opposite the postal depot, the entrance to the church hall is the first gate on your right.
