

Singing Workshop with Palaver

Saturday November 5th

10am - 4.30pm,

(Registration from 9.30am)

St. Margaret's Hall, Forfar

Four feisty women, Maureen Jelks, Aileen Carr, Chris Miles & Barbara Dymock, make up the current version of the well-loved and long-standing singing group Palaver. Each of the women is a fantastic singer in her own right, all with solo recordings, and when they come together to sing their mixture of traditional and contemporary a cappella songs it's a treat for the ears. This promises to be a wonderful and entertaining day of song and harmony singing and is a chance to sing with some of the foremost women singers from central Scotland.

£12 (£10 concession)
